

"The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few..."

DO YOU HEAR THE CALL?

Join us at the Yanbian University of Science and Technology!

The English Conversation Office at the Yanbian University of Science and Technology is recruiting volunteer teachers for the 2017-2018 school year and beyond.

About YUST:

- China's first Chinese-foreign joint global university
- Invest in the lives of college students who are uniquely positioned to impact this region of the world.
- The campus is located in Yanji City, Jilin Province in northeast China, a strategic hub of contact between China, the Korean peninsula, and Russia.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree or above (in any field)
- Native/Near-native English speaking ability
- Two years work experience preferably with some teaching experience. For new graduates teaching experience not required, but a certificate from an English teacher-training program is needed.
- Applicants must raise their own support

Spring applications now open until November 30, 2017, next fall applications open until May 31, 2018!
